ARTICLE 6
SHAREHOLDER ACTION BY LESS THAN UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by persons who would be entitled to vote at a meeting shares having voting power to cast not less than the minimum number (or numbers, in the case of voting by groups) of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shareholders entitled to vote were present and voted. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents bearing the date of signature and describing the action taken, signed by shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. If the action is taken by less than all of the shareholders entitled to vote on the action, all voting shareholders on the record date who did not participate in taking the action shall be given written notice of the action taken, and shall be furnished with the same material that would have been required to be sent to shareholders in a notice of a meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action, including notice of any applicable dissenters' rights, not more than ten days after taking the action without a meeting.

LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR LIABILITY

Section 7.1 No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or to its shareholders for monetary damages from acts or omissions or any breach of the duty of care or other duty as a director, except for liability: (i) for any appropriation, in violation of such director's duties, of any business opportunity of the corporation; (ii) for acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) for the types of liability set forth in the Code; or (iv) for any transaction from which the director received an improper personal benefit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Article is intended to provide indemnification to each director of the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended.

Section 7.2 Any repeal or modification of the provisions of this Article by the shareholders of the corporation shall be prospective only and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the liability of a director of the corporation with respect to any act, omission or liability occurring or arising prior to the effective date of such repeal or modification.

Section 7.3 If the Code is amended, after this Article becomes effective, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the liability of directors, then, without further corporate action, the liability of a director of the corporation, in addition to the limitation on liability provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Code, as so amended.

Section 7.4 In the event that any of the provisions of this Article (including any provision within a single sentence) is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or otherwise unenforceable, the remaining provisions are severable and shall remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Incorporation this 21 day of February in the year 2006.

Carter Allen, Esq.
Incorporator of JNCJP, INC.
