ARTICLE IX

The corporation shall have the further right and power to:

Determine from time to time whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of this corporation [other than the stock book] or any of them shall be open to inspection of stockholders; and no stockholder shall have any right of inspection of any account, book, or document of this corporation except as conferred by statute, unless authorized by a resolution of the stockholders or Board of Directors.

This corporation may, in its by-laws, confer powers upon its Board of Directors or Officers, in addition to the foregoing, and in addition to the powers authorized and expressly conferred by statute.

Both stockholders and directors shall have the power, if the by-laws so provide, to hold their respective meetings and to have one or more offices within or without the State of Florida, and to keep the books of this corporation [subject to the provisions of the statutes] outside the State of Florida, at such places as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this document, in the manner or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon the stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

ARTICLE X

At the election of the officers of this corporation, this corporation may be qualified as a Subchapter S corporation, pursuant to the Laws of the United States of America and the Internal Revenue Service. This provision shall be applicable only if the business in which the corporation engages qualifies for such tax treatment under the aforesaid Laws.
