To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of my client listed above in regards to payment of their annual filing fee of $150 that was due on May 1, 2007.

Please be advised that my client is a new company that was recently established. The client had received the postcard from the Department of State but put it in a file with other papers that he was to give me. When I met with him for the first time during the second week of May 2007, I reviewed all federal and state tax notices or communications he may have received over the last several months and was accumulating.

It is during this review of documents that I noticed he did not file his annual report in a timely manner. I have had the client prepare and hereby enclose a check in the amount of $150 payable to the Department of State for the fee that was due on May 1, 2007 for the above named account.

My client respectfully requests that you accept the check currently submitted, abate any late penalties, and bring his account current due to the fact that since this was the first time he had received this notice he didn't realize there was a deadline to file and pay the fee. Steps have been put in place to assure this does not reoccur.

Your prompt attention and understanding in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Alan E. Stander, CPA
