The duration of the corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE FOUR

Purpose or Purposes

The general purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

1. To engage in any legal trade or business which can, in the opinion of the board of directors of the corporation, be advantageously carried on for the benefit of the corporation.
2. To do such other things as are incidental to the foregoing or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the foregoing.

ARTICLE FIVE

Capitalization

The aggregate number of shares which the corporation is authorized to issue is 1000. Such shares shall be of a single class, and shall have a par value of One Cent ($0.01) per share, all of which are Common Shares. All Common Shares shall be identical with each other in every respect and the holders of Common Shares shall be entitled to one vote of each share on all matters on which shareholders have the right to vote.

ARTICLE SIX
Preemptive Rights

Each shareholder of this corporation shall have the first right to purchase shares of any class, kind or series of stock in this corporation that may from time to time be issued, whether or not presently authorized, including shares from the treasury of this corporation, in the ratio that the number of shares they hold at the time of issue bears to the total number of shares by any shareholder who does not exercise it and pay for the shares preempted within thirty (30) days of receipt of a notice in writing from the corporation, stating the prices, terms and conditions of the issue of shares, and inviting them to exercise their preemptive rights. This right may also be waived by affirmative written waiver submitted by the shareholder to the corporation within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice from the corporation.

ARTICLE SEVEN
