ARTICLE III – CORPORATE, PURPOSES, POWERS, AND RIGHTS

- 3.1 The nature of the business to be conducted or promoted and the purposes of the Corporation are to engage in the practice of law and any lawful act or activity for which a professional service corporation engaged in such profession may be organized under the Professional Service Corporation and Limited Liability Company Act and in which such a corporation is permitted to engage under other applicable law.
- 3.2 In furtherance of its corporate purposes, the Corporation shall have all of the general and specific powers and rights granted to and conferred on a corporation by the Professional Service Corporation and Limited Liability Company Act.

ARTICLE IV – CAPITAL STOCK

- 4.1 The total number of shares of capital stock the corporation has the authority to issue is 500 shares of Common Stock ("Common Stock"), $1.00 par value per share.
- 4.2 The designations, voting powers, preferences, and relative, participating, optional, or other special rights, and qualifications, limitations, or restrictions of the above stock are as follows:
- (a) The holders of the Common Stock are entitled to receive, to the extent permitted by law, such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors.
  - (b) In the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, distribution of assets, or winding up of the Corporation, after distribution in full of the preferential amounts, if any, to be distributed to the creditors and holders of shares of preferred stock, if any such stock shall be authorized herein and issued, the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive all the remaining assets of the Corporation of whatever kind available for distribution to shareholders ratably in proportion to the number of shares of Common Stock held by them respectively. The Board of Directors may distribute in kind to the holders of Common Stock such remaining assets to any other corporation, trust, or other entity and receive payment therefore in cash, stock, or obligations of such other corporation, trust, or other entity, or any combination thereof, and may sell all or any part of the consideration so received and distribute any balance thereof in kind to holders of Common Stock. The merger or consolidation of the Corporation into or with any other corporation, or the merger of any other corporation into it, or any purchase or redemption of shares of stock of the Corporation of any class, shall not be deemed to be a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the corporation for the purposes of this paragraph.

- (c) Each holder of Common Stock has one vote with respect to each share of stock held by the holder of record on the books of the Corporation on all matters voted upon by the shareholders.
- (d) The private property of the shareholders of this Corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts, except to the extent of any unpaid balance of subscription of shares.
- (e) Any person, upon becoming the owner or holder of any shares of the Common Stock or other securities having voting rights issued by this Corporation ("shareholder"), does thereby consent and agree that all rights, powers, privileges, obligations, or restrictions pertaining to such person or such securities in any way may be altered, amended, restricted, enlarged, or repealed by legislative enactments of the State of Florida or of the United States hereinafter adopted that have reference to or affect corporations, such securities, or such persons if any; and that the Corporation reserves the right to transact any business of the Corporation, to alter, amend, or repeal these Articles of Incorporation, or to do any other acts or things as authorized, permitted, or allowed by such legislative enactments.
