To Whom It May Concern:

Per a phone conversation with one of your employees on Wednesday August 7, 2007 I am enclosing a new updated form for the corporation Annual report with my FEIN number written onto the form. I am also enclosing a copy of the canceled check from my bank as to witness that I did indeed pay for the annual taxes on the business as of April 20, 2007. I was not aware nor did I receive any other correspondence from you regarding the fact that you didn't have my FEIN number on file. I thought that I had sent the number and that it was indeed on file with your office so I am therefore asking that you lift the $400.00 late fee for the corporation and release the dissolution off the corporation as well as I did pay the taxes on time and am enclosing the FEIN that your office requested as well over the phone. Could you please send me some kind of return letter stating that this has been done and that all is lifted and that my business isn't at risk for being dissolved or being charged any late fees either.

Thank you for your time and help with this matter.

Sincerely,
Glenn C Benedict-Owner
