I was surprised to receive this notice about Apples 2 Apples today. I sent you a Notice of Dissolution in April.

The economic conditions have kept me from actually starting this company. I have closed the checking account and when I sent you the last notice I thought it was a done deal.

I have enclosed another $35.00 in the form of a money order since I no longer have that checking account and the paperwork to follow through with closing the company.

I hope this takes care of everything you need.

Sincerely

Daniel Degginger
