SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned, being over the age of eighteen (18) years and competent to contract, hereby present these Articles for the formation of a corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, by and under the provisions of the statutes of the State of Florida providing for the formation, liability, rights, privileges and immunities of a professional service corporation under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE I

CORPORATE NAME

The name of the corporation is: JOSE R. MARICHAL, M.D., P.A.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES & POWERS

The general nature of the business or business to be transacted by this Corporation is to engage in the practice of medicine under the Laws of the State of Florida through individuals authorized by law to render such services and to possess and exercise all the powers and privileges granted by the laws of the State of Florida and by these Articles of Incorporation together with any powers incidental thereto, so far as such powers and privileges are necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion, or attainment of the business or purposes of the corporation, including, without limitation:

1. To invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds, or any other type of investments.
2. To own real and personal property necessary for the rendering of professional services.
3. To acquire all or any part of the good will, rights, franchises, property, and business of any person, firm, association, or corporation engaged in a similar business, subject to any limitations which may be imposed upon professional service corporations by Florida Statutes, Chapter 621, and as may be amend; and to pay for it in cash or in stock or obligations of the Corporation or otherwise.
4. To enter into and perform all manner and kinds of contracts, agreements, and obligations for any lawful purpose by or with any person, firm, association, corporation, or governmental division or subdivision, subject to any limitations which may be imposed upon professional service corporations by Florida Statutes, Chapter 621, and as may be amend.
5. To form, organize, promote, manage, control, and maintain, and to dissolve, merge, or consolidate one or more corporations, in the stock or other securities of which this corporation may be or become interested, for such purpose or purposes as may aid or advance the objects and purposes of this Corporation.
6. To enter into partnership agreements and joint ventures with any person, firm, association, or corporation engaged in carrying on any business in which the Corporation is authorized to engage, or in connection with carrying out all or any of the purposes of this Corporation.

7. To endorse or guarantee the payment of principal of, or interest on, bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness or obligations, and to guarantee the performance of any other contracts or other undertakings in which the Corporation may otherwise be or become interested insofar as may be permitted by law.
8. To undertake, contract for, or carry on any business incidental to or in aid of, or convenient or advantageous in pursuance of, any of the objects or purposes of the Corporation.

ARTICLE III

AUTHORIZED SHARES AND QUALIFIED STOCKHOLDERS

1. The total number of shares of stock which the corporation shall have authority to issue is 1,000 shares of common stock of no par value. Each stockholder of the corporation shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each fully paid, non-assessable share owned by him, and there shall be no cumulative voting.
2. None of the shares of the corporation may be issued to any one other than to an individual duly licensed to practice or legally authorized to render the same specific professional services as those for which this corporation was incorporated. No stockholder of the corporation shall enter into a Voting Trust Agreement or any other type of agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of his stock.
3. No stockholder of the corporation may sell or transfer his stock in the corporation except to another individual who is eligible to be a stockholder of the corporation; and such sale or transfer may be made only after the same shall have been approved, at a stockholders meeting specifically called for such purpose, by not less than a majority of the outstanding stock at such meeting, exclusive of the stock proposed to be sold. The shares of stock held by the stockholder proposing to sell or transfer his shares shall not be voted for purposes of approving or disapproving such sale or transfer.
4. If any officer, stockholder, agent or employee of the corporation who has been rendering professional medical and surgical services becomes legally disqualified to render such services within the State of Florida, he shall sever his employment with and his financial and stock ownership interest in the corporation.

ARTICLE IV

CORPORATE EXISTENCE

The Corporation is to have perpetual existence.
