Secretary of State
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS
Registration Section
P.O. Box 6327

Attn: Susan Payne

re: Blue Bayou Farms, Inc.

Dear Ms. Payne:

I am writing this letter which hopefully finds you well on behalf of the above referenced corporation which has not yet been processed or registered by your offices.

In the original and copy of the Articles of Incorporation which are enclosed with this letter to you, we requested an effective start date for the corporation of January 1, 2007. With the normal five (5) work day window (from the requested effective date) to get corporation packages to your offices quite obviously this did not happen in this case.

Here in Colorado, which is where I mail such packages from, we have been hit with multiple snow storms and inclement weather of blizzard proportions, with yet another one due in here tomorrow. I'm quite certain you have seen the highlights of some of this on the local news channels, not to mention reading about them in the newspapers. It has been pretty bad here in that such weather has seriously impacted not only mail delivery, but has wreaked havoc on the delivery services of private couriers (FedEx, UPS, etc.) as well.

Therefore, in view of said circumstances, I am asking that the Secretary of State make an exception in this case, and in spite of the package arriving late, grant special consideration to the situation and allow this corporation the requested effective date of January 1, 2007.

SECRETARY OF STATE

In closing this letter to you, please accept my sincere thanks for any consideration given to this matter, and in the event of questions or need for further information, please feel free to contact me.
