Article XII
Non-Liability Of Directors

A Director of this Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its Shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, (iii) for any transaction from which the Director derived an improper personal benefit, or (iv) acts or omissions for which non-liability is prohibited under the Florida Business Corporation Act. No amendment to or repeal of this Article shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any Director of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such Director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal. If the Florida Business Corporation Act is hereafter changed to permit further elimination or limitation of the liability of Directors for monetary damages to the Corporation or its Shareholders, then the liability of a Director of this Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the full extent then permitted.

Article XIII
Indemnification Of Directors

This Corporation shall indemnify a Director of this Corporation, and each Director of this Corporation who is serving or who has served, at the request of this Corporation, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise or employee benefit plan to the fullest extent possible against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses, actually incurred by such Director or person relating to his or her conduct as a Director of this Corporation or as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise or employee benefit plan, except that the mandatory indemnification required by this sentence shall not apply (i) to a breach of a Director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its Shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, (iii) for a transaction from which a Director derived an improper personal benefit, (iv) acts or omissions for which indemnification is prohibited under the Florida Business Corporation Act, or (v) against judgments, penalties, fines, and settlements arising from any proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation, or against expenses in any such case where such Director shall be adjudged liable to the Corporation.

The indemnification provided in this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person indemnified may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of Shareholders, or disinterested Directors or otherwise, both as to action in the official capacity of such person and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person.

Article XIV Indemnification Of Officer-Directors

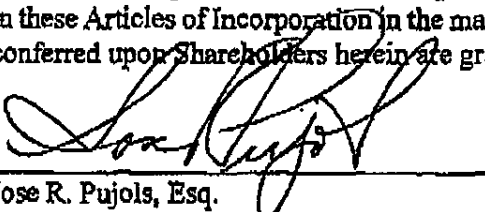

This Corporation shall indemnify an Officer-Director of this Corporation, and each Officer-Director of this Corporation who is serving or who has served, at the request of this Corporation, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise or employee benefit plan to the fullest extent possible against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses, actually incurred by such Officer-Director or person relating to his or her conduct as an Officer-Director of this Corporation or as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise or employee benefit plan, except that the mandatory indemnification required by this sentence shall not apply (i) to a breach of an Officer-Director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its Shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, (iii) for a transaction from which an Officer-Director derived an improper personal benefit, (iv) acts or omissions for which indemnification is prohibited under the Florida Business Corporation Act, or (v) against judgments, penalties, fines and settlements arising from any proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation, or against expenses in any such case where such Officer-Director shall be adjudged liable to the Corporation.

The indemnification provided in this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person indemnified may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of Shareholders, or disinterested Directors or otherwise, both as to action in the official capacity of such person and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an Officer-Director and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person.

Article XV
Amendment Of Articles

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute and all rights conferred upon Shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.
