RE: EcoVisions, Inc.

This letter will serve to confirm that our client, the above-referenced corporation and the principals thereof, are aware fully that the corporate name "EcoVisions" could possibly be considered as infringing on the inactive limited liability company, Eco-Vision, LLC. Accordingly, we agree to hold the Secretary of State's Office harmless from and against any and all claims and liabilities that our client may sustain as the result of the owner of the aforementioned limited liability company asserting and successfully prevailing in an infringement suit, and the need for our client to change their corporate name as so ordered by a court of law and to "retool" its branding and marketing materials and collaterals.

Our client believes the name is distinguishable clearly particularly given the area of commerce in which our client intends to employ same and it being different wholly from the perceived business of the aforementioned inactive Florida limited liability company.

Thank you for your assistance this morning and please know that I am,

Yours truly,

Frank R. Keasler, Jr.
