To Whom It May Concern:

I have just received this inquiry from you stating that you need more information from me to complete this paperwork. I was away on business and have now gotten this request and I am requesting you waive this fee for the fact that I had no way of physically obtaining this letter and providing you with the appropriate information on time. I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. I am available for contact at anytime if you have any questions regarding this incident.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'J. Wyatt Holland', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
