12. Regulatory Provisions The following additional provisions are inserted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation, and creating, defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the Corporation, the Directors and the Stockholders.

(a) Powers of Directors To Amend By-Laws The Board of Directors shall be authorised and empowered from time to time in its discretion to make, alter or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation, except as such power may be limited by any one or more By-Laws of the Corporation adopted by the stockholders.

(b) Books The books of the Corporation (Subject to the laws of the State of Florida) may be kept outside of the State of Florida at such places as from time to time may be designated by the Board of Directors.

(c) Cumulative Voting At all meetings of the elections of the Directors, each Stockholder shall be entitled to as many votes as shall equal the number of votes which he would have been entitled to cast for the election of Directors with respect to his shares of stock multiplied by the number of Directors to be elected, and that he may cast all such votes for a single Director or may distribute them among the number to be voted for, or for any two or more of them as he may see fit.

(d) Consent of Stockholders in Lieu of Meeting Whenever the vote of stockholders is required at a meeting or is permitted to be taken for in connection with any corporate action by any provision of the General Corporation Law of Florida the meeting and vote of Stockholders may be dispensed with if such action is taken with the written consent of the holders of not less than a majority of all the stock having less than the minimum percentage of the vote required by statute for such action, and provided that prompt notice is given to all Stockholders of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting and by less than unanimous written consent.

(e) Election of Directors Election of Directors need not be by written ballot.

(f) Removal of Directors The Stockholders may at any time, at the meeting expressly called for that purpose, remove any or all of the Directors, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of Directors. No Director may be removed when the votes cast against his or her removal would be sufficient to elect that individual if voted cumulatively at an election which the same total number of votes were cast and the entire Board were then being elected.

13. Pre-emptive Rights The holders of the shares of the Corporation shall from time to time have the pre-emptive rights to purchase, at such respective equitable process, terms, and conditions, as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors, such of the shares of the Corporation as may be issued, from time to time, over and above the issue of the first 400 shares of the Corporation which have never previously been sold. Such pre-emptive right shall apply to all shares issued after such first 400 shares, whether such additional shares constitute a part of the shares presently or subsequently authorized or constitute shares held in the treasury of the Corporation, and shall be exercised in the respective ratio with the number of shares held by each Stockholder at the time of such issue bears to the total number of shares outstanding in the names of all the Stockholders at such time.

14. Greater Voting Requirements The affirmative vote of the majority of the Directors shall be necessary for the transaction of any business at any meeting of Directors, except in the case of a proposal to borrow money on the Corporation's credit, in which case the favourable vote of all the Directors shall be necessary.

15. Duration The duration of the Corporation's existence shall be perpetual.

16. Personal Liability

(a) The Corporation shall indemnify the Corporation's Directors so that they shall not be personally liable for the debts of the Corporation if:

(1) they conducted themselves in good faith, and

(2) they reasonably believed their conduct was in their official capacity and within the corporation's best interests, and

(3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, they had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful.

(b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not of itself determinative that the Director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(c) The Corporation may not indemnify a Director under this section:

(1) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the Director is adjudged liable to the Corporation; or

(2) in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to him or her, whether or not involving action in their official capacity in which they were adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by that individual.

(d) Indemnification permitted under this section is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

(e) The Corporation shall indemnify a Director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defence of any proceeding to which they were a party to because of their role as a Director of the Corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred by them in connection with the proceeding.

(f) The Corporation shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a Director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:

(1) the Director furnishes the Corporation a written affirmation of his good faith belief that they met the standard of conduct prescribed in this section,

(2) the Director furnished the Corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on their behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that they did not meet the standard of conduct, a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this sub-chapter,

(3) the undertaking required by subsection (2) must be an unlimited general obligation of the Director, but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

(g) An officer of the Corporation who is not a Director is entitled to mandatory indemnification in each case to the extent as a Director and the Corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses under this sub-chapter to an Officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation who is not a Director to the same extent as to a Director.

(h) The Corporation shall, to the extent reasonably possible, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of those individuals who are or will be Directors, Officers, employees, or agents of the Corporation; or who, while Directors, officers, employees, or agents of the Corporation, are or who will be serving at the request of the Corporation, in any capacity or, in another business enterprise, and the Corporation shall indemnify them against liability asserted against them or incurred by them in that capacity.

(i) The stockholders shall be liable in proportion with that which their stock bears on the total outstanding stock of the Corporation.

17. Fiscal Year The Corporation shall declare its fiscal year beginning on the first day of January and ending on the last day of December of each year and all taxes and annual reports shall be filed consistent with this schedule.

18. Amendments The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the Certificate of Incorporation in the manner now or hereinafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon Stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

THE UNDERSIGNED, being the incorporator above named, for the purpose of forming a Corporation pursuant to the General Corporation Law of Florida signs and acknowledges these Articles of Incorporation this the 29 day of June 2007.
