otherwise legally authorized under the laws of the State of Florida to practice law in such state.

To engage in every phase and aspect of the business of rendering the same professional services to the public that an attorney duly licensed by the laws of the State of Florida and practicing, by virtue of further training and experience, in the field of law is authorized to render, but such professional services shall be rendered only through the corporation's officers, employees and agents who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized under the laws of the State of Florida to practice law in such state.

To engage in every phase and aspect of the business of rendering the same professional services to the public that an attorney duly licensed by the State of Florida through participation in general partnerships or limited partnerships (whether the Corporation be a general or limited partnership) so long as the participating partner or partners are authorized to carry on the same business of rendering the same professional services to the public either as a duly licensed attorney or as a corporation formed under Chapters 607 and 621, Florida Statutes.

To engage in every phase and aspect of the business of rendering the same professional services to the public that are usual and incident to the practice of law in conformity with the practice of law by a duly licensed attorney under the laws of the State of Florida, but such professional services shall be rendered only through the corporation's officers, employees and agents who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized under the laws of the State of Florida to perform such professional services as may be incident to the practice of law in such state.

To invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds or any other type of investments and to own real and personal property necessary for the rendering of the above-described professional services.

To do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of any of the objects or purposes enumerated in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment thereto, or in the furtherance thereof or necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of the Corporation, and in general, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms or individuals, to carry on any lawful pursuit necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes or the attainment of the objectives or the furtherance of such purposes or objectives for which this Corporation is formed, and to have all of the powers conferred upon this Corporation by the laws of the State of Florida, or of any other state or country and not prohibited by the professional service corporation act provided, however, that this Corporation shall not engage in any business other than the rendering of the professional services described above for which it was organized.

The objects and purposes specified in the foregoing clauses of this Article, unless expressly limited shall not be limited or restricted by reference to, or inference from, any provision in this or any other Article of these Articles of Incorporation, shall be regarded as independent objects and purposes and shall be construed as powers as well as objects and purposes, all as permitted by law.

ARTICLE IV CAPITAL STOCK

(1) This Corporation shall be authorized to have outstanding at any time a maximum of five thousand (5,000) shares of stock of the par value of one ($1.00) dollar.

(2) No shares of stock of this Corporation may be issued to anyone other than the individual duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to practice law in the State of Florida.

(3) Shares of stock may be issued in consideration of the payment of the entire purchase price or only part of the purchase price, as may be determined by the Board of Directors which payment may be made in cash, property, or in services. Shares issued in consideration of the payment of only part of the purchase price:

(a) Shall be subject to calls thereon, in amounts and at such times as the Board of Directors may determine until the whole thereof shall have been paid; and

(b) Shall participate in dividends upon the basis of the amount actually paid on the respective shares; and

(c) Certificates issued therefor shall bear endorsement as to the actual amount paid thereon.

(4) No stock in this Corporation shall be sold or transferred other than by operation of law, unless and until the record owner thereof shall have given written notice, by certified mail, to the Corporation at its principal office, setting forth a desire to sell such stock, together with the price, terms and conditions upon which said stock shall be offered for sale. The Corporation, if it elects, or its stockholders, if it shall not elect, shall have an exclusive right to purchase said stock at the price and upon the terms and conditions set forth in said notice at any time within thirty (30) days of the corporation's receipt thereof. Upon failure of the Corporation or its stockholders to exercise such rights within such thirty (30) day period, said stock may be offered for sale to others, but only at the price and upon the terms and conditions stated in said notice.
