Gentlemen:

Enclosed is my 2008 Annual Report that was due May 1, 2008.

I missed the deadline because I have been very distraught over the construction slow down as well as having to collect money from the contractors I work for as well as trying to find enough new work to stay in business and pay my bill.

This situation has taken a toll on my health to the point that I have been under A Doctors care.

I'm sorry I missed the dead line but please forgive the penalty and I promise to get on schedule this next year.

Thank you very much for any help you can give me.

Sincerely,

George W. Crawford
President
