EIGHTH: A director or officer of the corporation shall not be disqualified by his office from dealing or contracting with the corporation as a vendor, purchaser, employee, agent, or otherwise. No transaction or contract or act of the corporation shall be void or voidable in any way affected or invalidated by reason of the fact that any director or officer, or any firm of which any director or officer is a member, or any corporation of which any director or officer is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which any director or officer is a trustee or beneficiary, is in any way interested in such transaction or contract or act. No director or officer shall be accountable or responsible to the corporation for or in respect of any transaction or contract or act of the corporation or for any gains or profits directly or indirectly realized by him by reason of the fact that he or any firm of which he is a member or any corporation of which he is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which he is a trustee or beneficiary, is interested in such transaction or contract or act; provided the fact that such director or officer or such firm or corporation or such trust is so interested shall have been disclosed or shall have been known to the board of directors or such members thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the board of directors at which action upon such contract or transaction or act shall have been taken. Any director may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors which shall authorize or take action in respect to any such contract or transaction or act, and may vote thereat to authorize, ratify, or approve any such contract or transaction or act, and any officer of the corporation may take any action within the scope of his authority respecting such contract or transaction or act with like force and effect as if he is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust which he is a trustee or beneficiary, were not interested in such transaction or contract or act. Without limiting or qualifying the foregoing, if in any judicial or other inquiry, suit, cause or proceeding, the question of whether a director or officer of the corporation has acted in good faith is material, then notwithstanding any statute or rule of law or of equity to the contrary (if any there be), his good faith shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, by clear and convincing evidence.

NINTH: The corporation, through its board of directors, shall have the right and power to repurchase any of its outstanding shares at such price and upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the corporation and the selling shareholder or shareholders.

TENTH: Notwithstanding any provision of any statute of the State of Florida, now or hereafter in force, requiring for any purpose the vote of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise two-thirds or any other proportion of the voting power of the corporation or of any class or classes of shares thereof, any action, unless otherwise expressly required by statute, may be taken by the vote of the holders of the shares entitling them to exercise a majority of the voting power of the corporation or of such class or classes.

ELEVENTH: No person shall be liable to the corporation for any loss or damage suffered by it on account of any action taken or omitted to be taken by him as a Director or Officer of the Corporation in good faith, if such person (i) exercised or used the same degree of care and skill as a prudent man would have exercised or used under the circumstances in the conduct of his own affairs, or (ii) took, or omitted to take, such action in reliance upon advice of counsel for the corporation or upon statements made or information furnished by Officers or employees of the Corporation which he has reasonable grounds to believe or upon a financial statement of the Corporation prepared by an Officer or employee of the Corporation in charge of its accounts or certified by a public accountant or firm of public accountants, or (iii) in good faith considered the assets to be of their book value or followed what he believed to be sound accounting and business practices.

In case any claim, action, suit or proceedings shall be made or brought against any present or future Director or Officer of the Corporation, or any person who may now be serving or in the future may serve at its request as a Director or Officer of another Corporation in which it owns shares, his heirs, executors or administrators, on account of action taken or omitted to be taken by such Directors or Officer of the Corporation or of such other Corporation, the Corporation shall indemnify such present or future Director or Officer, his heirs, executors and administrators, against all or any portion of any expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any such claim, action, suit or proceedings (whether or not he continues to be a Director or Officer at the time of incurring such expenses), such expenses to include any amount paid upon any judgment and the amount of any reasonable settlement made with a view to curtailment of costs of litigation. The Corporation shall not, however, indemnify any such Director or Officer with respect to any matter as to which he shall be finally adjudged in any such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty, nor in respect to any matter on which any settlement or compromise shall be effected, if the total expense, including the amount paid upon such settlement, shall substantially exceed the expense which might reasonably be incurred by such Director or Officer in conducting such litigation to a final conclusion.

The provisions of this paragraph shall be in addition to and not in limitation of any other rights, indemnities or limitations of liability to which any Director or Officer may be entitled as a matter of law. Notwithstanding any repeal of this paragraph or other amendment thereof, the foregoing indemnification shall be binding upon the Corporation (subject only to the exceptions herein above set forth) as to all claims, actions, suits or proceedings, and expenses connected therewith and settlements thereof, as above provided, arising out of matters which occur during, or are referable to, the period to any such repeal or amendment.

TWELFTH: The street address of the initial Registered Office of the corporation is:
1412 Viscaya Parkway, Cape Coral, Florida 33990

The name of the initial Registered Agent: Jeffrey Santella.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being the incorporator(s) and initial subscriber(s) to the capital stock hereinbefore mentioned for the purpose of forming a corporation as herein provided under the laws of the State of Florida, do make, subscribe, acknowledge and file the foregoing Articles of Incorporation, hereby certifying the facts herein above to be true, and further agree to take the number of stock hereinbefore mentioned for the purpose of forming a corporation as herein provided under the laws of the State of Florida, all being done this 23 day of July, 2007.
