WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). This EIN will identify your account, tax returns, and notices in your permanent records, even if you have no employees. Please notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, if possible, it is very important that you file exactly as shown above on all federal tax documents. Any variation may cause a delay in processing your account, or even cause you to be assigned an incorrect EIN. If this information isn't correct as shown above, please return it to us so we can correct it.

Based on the information from you, we have assigned you the following form(s) by the date(s) shown.

Form 1120

03/15/2009

If you have questions about the form(s) or the due date(s) shown, you can call or write to us at the phone number or address at the top of this notice. If you need help in determining what your tax year is, see Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods, available at your local IRS office or you can download this publication from our website at www.irs.gov.

We assigned you a tax classification based on information obtained from you or your representative. It is not a legal determination of your tax classification, and is not binding on the IRS. If you want a legal determination on your tax classification, you may request a private letter ruling from the IRS under the guidelines in Revenue Procedure 2004-1, 2004-1 I.R.B. 1 (or superseding Revenue Procedure for the year at issue.)

No use for this at our office - you keep.

If this isn't your name and address, please send all related correspondence to the information in your permanent records. Please attach this information to the off stub from this notice.
