To whom it may concern:

We are writing concerning our renewal of our corporation for year 2009. On early October, 2009 we were informed that the corporation had not been renewed. We did not know of this requirement and we had not received any notice. This was mostly due to a continuous problem in the mailbox in our location which is heavily crime affected. When we told our previous accountant he simply had us pay the $750. fee (copy of check attached). Our new accountant explained to us that if this was our situation, we did not have to pay the $600. penalty. With that in mind, we are asking to be reimbursed the $600. penalty we paid. Please provide us with whatever forms may be necessary to make this claim. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Antonio Domínguez, Pres.
