(d) The Corporation shall file or cause to be filed its own separate tax returns.

(f) The Corporation shall observe all customary formalities regarding the corporate existence of the Corporation, including holding meetings and maintaining current and accurate minute books separate from those of any Affiliate of same.

(g) The Corporation shall hold title to its assets in its own name and act solely in its own name and through its own duly authorized officers and agents. No Affiliate of same shall be appointed or act as agent of the Corporation, other than, as applicable, a property manager with respect to the Property.

(h) Investments shall be made in the name of the Corporation directly by the Corporation or on its behalf by brokers engaged and paid by the Corporation or its agents.

(i) Except as required by Lender, the Corporation shall not guarantee, pledge its assets to, assume or hold itself out, or permit itself to be held out as having guaranteed, pledged its assets to, assumed or otherwise become responsible for, any liabilities or obligations of any person or entity, including any Affiliate of the Corporation, nor shall it make any loan, except as permitted in the loan documents with the Lender.

(j) The Corporation is and will be solvent and shall pay its own liabilities, indebtedness and obligations of any kind, including all administrative expenses, from its own separate assets.

(k) Assets of the Corporation shall be separately identified, maintained and segregated. The Corporation's assets shall at all times be held by or on behalf of the Corporation and if held on behalf of the Corporation by another entity, shall at all times be kept identifiable (in accordance with customary usages) as assets owned by the Corporation. This restriction requires, among other things, that (i) Corporation funds shall be deposited or invested in the Corporation's name, (ii) Corporation funds shall not be commingled with the funds of any Affiliate of same or other person or entity, (iii) the Corporation shall maintain all accounts in its own name and with its own tax identification number, separate from those of any Affiliate of same or other person or entity, and (iv) Corporation funds shall be used for the business of the Corporation.

(l) The Corporation shall maintain its assets in such a manner that it is not costly or difficult to segregate, ascertain or identify its individual assets from those of any Affiliate of same or other person or entity, and shall maintain a sufficient number of employees in light of its contemplated business operations.

(m) The Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid its own liabilities and expenses of any kind, including but not limited to salaries of its employees, only out of its own separate funds and assets, and shall maintain a sufficient number of employees in light of its contemplated business operations.

H08000019331 3

(n) The Corporation shall at all times be adequately capitalized to engage in the transactions contemplated at its formation and for the normal obligations reasonably foreseeable in a business of its size and character (in light of its contemplated business operations).

(o) The Corporation shall not do any act which would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of the Corporation.

(p) All data and records (including computer records) used by the Corporation or any Affiliate of same in the collection and administration of any loan shall reflect the Corporation's ownership interest therein.

(q) None of the Corporation's funds shall be invested in securities issued by, nor shall the Corporation acquire the indebtedness or obligation of, any Affiliate of same.

(r) When acting on matters subject to the vote of the directors, notwithstanding that the Corporation is not then insolvent, the Directors and the Independent Director shall take into account the interest of the Corporation's creditors, to the maximum extent consistent with applicable law.

(s) The Corporation shall maintain an arm's length relationship with each of its Affiliates and may enter into contracts or transact business with its Affiliates only on commercially reasonable terms that are no less favorable to the Corporation than is obtainable in the market from a person or entity that is not an Affiliate of same.

(t) The Corporation shall correct any misunderstanding that is known by the Corporation regarding its name or separate identity.

Failure of the Corporation to comply with the foregoing covenants or other covenants contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall not affect the status of the Corporation as a separate legal entity.

For purposes of these Articles of Incorporation, Affiliate means any person or entity, including, but not limited to, the Company, which directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries controls, is controlled by or is under common control with a specified person or entity. For purposes hereof, the terms "control", "controlled", or "controlling" with respect to a specified person or entity shall include, without limitation, (i) the ownership, control or power to vote ten percent (10%) or more of (x) the outstanding shares of any class of voting securities or (y) beneficial interests, of any such person or entity, as the case may be, directly or indirectly, or acting through one or more persons or entities, (ii) the control in any manner over the shareholder(s) or the election of more than one director or trustee (or persons exercising similar functions) of such person or entity, or (iii) the power to exercise, directly or indirectly, control over the management or policies of such person or entity.
