Subject: Dissolution of Fastrak Consulting Inc.

Dear Amendment Section Officer:

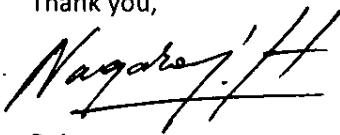

Please find enclosed my request to dissolve my company – Fastrak Consulting Inc., effective December 30th, 2010. I opened this company in 2008 when I got displaced and out of work for eight months in 2007.

My intention of opening this company was to pursue project management consulting opportunities but due to recession, I was not successful in securing any work. This company has not done any business since its inception. There has been no shares distributed for the company nor any business performed.

In early 2008, I got hired as a full-time contract employee (under W2 but no benefits) with Incepture and assigned to Blue Cross and Blue Shields of Florida (BCBSFL) to support as a Project Manager. Having served BCBSFL for the last three years, I was informed by my Manager last week that they are planning to hire me as a full-time employee of BCBSL in early 2011. I therefore will not have the time to pursue any other activities for Fastrak Consulting and would like to dissolve the company.

I request you to do the needful. Please do not hesitate to contact me on any questions that you may have on the filing.

Thank you,

Raj
