ARTICLE XI. SPECIAL PROVISIONS

1. In furtherance, and not in limitations of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to (a) fix the amount to be reserved as working capital over and above its capital stock paid in; (b) from time to time to determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts of the Corporation other than the stock book, or any of them, shall be open to inspection of the stockholders, and no stockholder shall have any right of inspection of any account, book or document of this Corporation except as conferred by statute, unless authorized by resolution of the stockholders or directors; and (c) pursuant to the affirmative vote of stockholders of record, holding stock in the Corporation entitling them to exercise at least a majority of the voting power, given at a stockholder's meeting duly called for that purpose, or when authorized by the written consent of stockholders of record holding stock in the Corporation entitling them to exercise at least a majority of the voting power, the Board of Directors shall have power and authority at any meeting to sell, lease or exchange all of the property and assets of this Corporation, including its Corporate franchises, or any property or assets essential to the business of the Corporation, upon such terms and conditions as its Board of Directors deems expedient for the best interest of the Corporation.

2. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of the Corporation is or are interested in, or a director or officer, or directors or officers of such other corporation, and any director or directors, individually or jointly may be party or parties to or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of the Corporation, or in which the Corporation is interested, and no contract, act or transaction, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director or directors of the Corporation is a party or are parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction, in or any way connected with such person or persons, firm or corporation, and each and every person who may become a director of the Corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from his contracting with the Corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association in which he may be in anywise interested. Any director of the Corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any subsidiary or controlled corporation.

3. These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders and approved at a stockholders meeting by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the directors and all stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.
