Article XIV.
Severance and Termination of Employment.

If any officer, Director, Shareholder, agent or employee of this Corporation who has been rendering the services of a lawyer to the public becomes legally disqualified to render such professional services with this state or accepts employment that places restrictions or limitations upon his continued rendering of such professional services, then, in any such event, such person's office and/or employment with and/or financial interest in this Corporation shall cease forthwith; subject, however, to the provisions of Article XV, dealing with "Amendments". Should any amendment be effected which changes the nature and purpose of this Corporation so that the restrictions of Florida Statute 621 do not apply, then the restriction of this Article XIV shall not thereafter apply; provided, however, that until such amendment is effected, such person shall render no professional services, shall hold no office, shall not serve on the Board of this Corporation, and shall have no financial interest in this Corporation except to receive payment for any stock owned and any other amounts that are lawfully due and owing by the Corporation.

Article XV.
Amendments.

Section 1. These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Each amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors and proposed by them to the Shareholders, and approved at a Shareholders' Meeting unless all the Directors and all the Shareholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment to these Articles of Incorporation be made. All rights conferred on Shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

Section 2. In the event the ownership of shares of this Corporation shall be in any person, trust, Corporation, estate or partnership who is not qualified to own such shares under the provisions of Chapter 621, Florida Statutes, and there has been no voluntary transfer of stock contrary to Article VIII, or to law, the Board of Directors and Shareholder shall have the power to amend these Articles of Incorporation in the manner and method prescribed in Section 1 of this Article XV to effect a change in the nature and purpose of the business authorized by these Articles of Incorporation so that this Corporation shall have the power to conduct any business authorized by Chapter 607, Florida Statutes. If there is a vacancy on the Board of Directors at or after the occurrence of the event referred to in this subparagraph, that vacancy shall be filled by the remaining Board of Directors until this amendment is complete and effective, or until such ownership of shares no longer exists. No Shareholder shall be ineligible to vote on any such amendment merely because he is an ineligible Shareholder under Florida Statutes 621; but he shall have no other voting right.

Article XVI.
Rights of Shareholder Whose Interest
Terminates Under Article XIV.

If any Shareholder of this Corporation be required to terminate his financial interest in this Corporation because of the application of Article XIV, or the application of Chapter 621, Florida Statutes and should these Articles not be amended as provided in Article XV, the financial interest of such Shareholder shall terminate immediately and automatically except to receive payment for such stock in this Corporation as may be owned by him, and any other amounts that are lawfully due and owing to him by the Corporation, and such shares of stock shall not be entitled to dividends, or stock rights of any kind. Such stock shall be forthwith transferred, sold, purchased, pledged or redeemed at such price or value and under such terms as shall be authorized or set forth in the Bylaws or Shareholders' Agreement, if any, and if not, by mutual agreement or, if no such agreement can be reached, then by arbitration.

Article XVII.

The date that corporate existence shall begin shall be March 15, 2008. This election is pursuant to Florida Statute 607.0203.
