ARTICLE X - PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

Every shareholder, upon the sale of any stock of this corporation of the same kind, class or series as that which he already holds, shall have the right to purchase his pro rata share thereof (as nearly as may be done without issuance of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others.

ARTICLE XI - RESTRICTIONS ON SALE OF STOCK

The corporation, and subject to the priority of the corporation, the remaining stockholders of the corporation shall have preference in the purchase of any shares of the capital stock of the corporation and any attempted sale of such shares of stock in violation of this provision shall be null and void. In case a stockholder, his personal representatives, heirs, devisees, legatees, pledgees, assignees, receivers, trustee in bankruptcy, or any other person holding under or in privity with any stockholder desires to sell his shares of stock, he shall file notice in writing of such intention with the secretary of the corporation stating the terms of the bona fide offer which he has received, and unless the terms of such offer are accepted within ten (10) days, it shall be deemed to have waived its privilege of purchasing. In the event that the corporation is legally unable to purchase such stock or otherwise waives its privilege of purchasing, the secretary of the corporation shall mail written notice to all remaining stockholders, by certified mail, return receipt requested, advising them of the terms of such bona fide offer, and unless the terms of such offer are accepted by any or all of the other stockholders within ten (10) days from the date of mailing such notice they shall be deemed to have waived their privilege of purchasing and the stockholders, or the person in privity with him, desiring to sell shall be at the liberty to effect a sale upon the terms of such bona fide offer. No stockholder may cause the corporation or the remaining stockholders to waive their privilege of purchasing until such stockholder has received a bona fide offer for the purchase of such shares. Neither the corporation nor the remaining stockholders (collectively) may exercise their privilege of purchasing as to any shares less than the total number of shares involved in such bona fide offer.
