ARTICLE XI.

INTERNAL OPERATION OF THE CORPORATION

In furtherance and not in limitation of the power conferred by statute, the following specific provisions are made for the regulation of business and the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation.

1. Subject to such restrictions, if any, as are herein expressed and such further restrictions, if any, as may be set forth in the By-Laws, the Stockholders shall have the general management and control of the business and may exercise all of the powers of the Corporation except such as may be by statute, or by the Articles of Incorporation or amendment thereto, or by the By-Laws as constituted from time to time, expressly conferred upon or reserved to the Stockholders.

2. The Corporation shall have such officers as may from time to time be provided in the By-Laws and such officers shall be designated in such manner and shall hold their offices for such terms and shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed by the By-Laws or as may be determined from time to time by the Stockholders.

3. No contract or other transactions between the corporation and any other firm, association or corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the Stockholders of the corporation is or are interested in or is a member, director, or officer or are members, directors or officers of such other firm or corporation or any director or directors individually interested in any contract or transaction of the corporation or in which the corporation is interested; and no contract, act or transaction of the corporation with any person, firm, association or corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any stockholder or stockholders of the corporation is a party or are parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction or in any way connected with such person, firm, association or corporation and each and every person who may become a stockholder of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he may in any way be interested.

ARTICLE XII.

PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

All holders of shares of stock in the Corporation of any class shall have preemptive or preferential rights of
