ARTICLE III PURPOSE

Section 3.01. Purpose. The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:
The Corporation is organized for the purpose of transacting in any and all lawful business for which Corporations may be incorporated under Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE IV SHARES

Section 4.01. Number and class. The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is 1,000,000. Such shares shall be of a single class. Par value of the shares will be determined by the Board of Directors at the time the shares are issued.

Section 4.02. No transfer unless first approved by Board. Shares issued by this Corporation shall not be transferred or sold until the sale or transfer has been reported to and approved by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may refuse such approval when the proposed transfer or sale would jeopardize the Corporation's status or exemption, or for any other reasonable purpose.

Section 4.03. Corporations right of first refusal. No Shareholder shall have the right to sell, assign, pledge, encumber, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of the Corporation without first offering such shares for sale to the Corporation at the original purchase price. Such offer shall be in writing, signed by the Shareholder; shall be sent by registered or certified mail to the Corporation at its principal place of business; and shall remain open for acceptance by the Corporation for a period of 45 days from the date of mailing. If the Corporation fails or refuses within such period to make satisfactory arrangements for the purchase of such shares, the Shareholder shall have the right to dispose of his or her shares as he or she may see fit.

On the death of any Shareholder, the Corporation shall have the right to purchase all shares owned by such Shareholder immediately prior to his or her death on the terms set forth above, and this provision shall be binding on the executor, administrator, or personal representative of each Shareholder.

Each share certificate issued by the Corporation shall have printed or stamped on it the following legend: "These shares are held subject to certain transfer restrictions imposed by the articles of incorporation of the Corporation. A copy of such articles is on file at the principal office of the Corporation."

Section 4.04. Prerequisite to transfer of stock: Prior offer to other Shareholders. In case a Shareholder desires to sell his or her shares of stock, he or she must first offer them for sale to the remaining Shareholders, it being the intention to give them a preference in the purchase of such shares, and any at-tempted sale in violation of this provision is null and void. A Shareholder desiring to sell his or her stock shall file notice in writing of his or her intention with the secretary of the Corporation, stating the terms of sale, and unless his or her terms are accepted by any or all of the other Stockholders within 45 days thereafter, they shall be deemed to have waived their privilege of purchasing and he or she will be at liberty to sell to anyone else.

Section 4.05. Corporation's option to purchase shares before sale to other Shareholders or third person -Exception of transfers to family members. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any Shareholder may at any time during such Shareholder's lifetime transfer any of such Shareholder's share in the company to his or her spouse, father or mother, children (unless those children have not reached their age of majority, in which event the shareholder may transfer the stock in trust for the benefit of such minor children) or to the trustee or trustees under any trust created during his or her lifetime for the benefit of the Shareholder, his or her spouse, father or mother, or children. However, the spouse, father, mother, children or trustee shall agree in writing prior to such transfer to become a party to and be bound by all terms and conditions of the agreement which provides for the Corporation's option to purchase shares before sale to other Stockholders or third persons, just as if they were original parties to such agreement.

ARTICLE V DURATION

Section 5.01. Duration. The term for which said corporation shall exist is perpetual unless terminated pursuant to Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE VI DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' LIABILITY

Section 6.01. Liability. A Director or Officer of this Corporation shall not be personally liable to this Corporation or its Stockholders for damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director or Officer or for the debts or obligations of this Corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the Directors or Officers be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation, but this Article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a Director or Officer for (i) acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct, fraud, or a knowing violation of law or (ii) the unlawful payment of distributions. Any repeal or modification of the Article by the Stockholders of the Corporation shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a Director or Officer of the Corporation for acts or omissions prior to such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE VII INDEMNITY

Section 7.01. Indemnity. Every person who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, or is involved in any action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director or Officer of another Corporation, or as its representative in a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, shall be indemnified and held harmless to the fullest extent legally permissible under the laws of the State of Florida from time to time against all expenses, liability, and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by him or her in connection therewith. Such right of indemnification shall be a contract right which may be enforced in any manner desired by such person. The expenses of Officers and Directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding must be paid by the Corporation as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Director or Officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation. Such right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other right which such Directors, Officers, or representatives may have or hereafter acquire, and, without limiting the generality of such statement, they shall be entitled to their respective rights of indemnification under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Stockholders, provision of law, or otherwise, as well as their rights under this Article. Without limiting the application of the foregoing, the Stockholders or Board of Directors may adopt bylaws from time to time with respect to indemnification, to provide at all times the fullest indemnification permitted by the laws of the State of Florida, and may cause the Corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director or Officer of another Corporation, or as its representative in a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred in any such capacity or arising out of such status, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person. The indemnification provided in this Article shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director, Officer, Employee, or Agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person.
