ARTICLE V
Nature of the Business

The Corporation is organized for the purpose of transacting any and all lawful business. It will be the intention and purpose of the Corporation to develop and deliver products or services for customers in ways which nurture and support humanity, including business practices which reflect the Corporation's commitment to use its best efforts to operate the business in alignment with the following chosen values:

1. Respect and care for our employees and their roles in the Corporation and in life in general, both as employees and as fathers or mothers, sons or daughters, friends or partners of others in life and as members of the communities in which they live and work, creating an environment in which the employees enjoy coming to work and feel inspired and enabled in their own personal growth.
2. Respect for our customers and vendors, always dealing with them fairly and honestly, so they feel our authentic interest in their welfare as well as our own.
3. Respect for the environment, doing business in ways that support and maintain a healthy and sustainable relationship between the Corporation and the environment that we affect, both locally and globally.
4. Respect for the communities in which we do business, finding ways to give something back to them in order to express our gratitude for their contribution to us and the lives of our customers, employees and vendors.
5. Respect for our stockholders, creating long term value for them in gratitude for their contributions to our success and growth.

This statement of values is expressed in order to set high goals for ourselves and to establish a core foundation around which a natural self-organizing and evolving process can occur for the Corporation, subject, however, to the condition and limitation that it is not intended and shall not be construed at any time as the basis for any demands or legal actions by anyone who believes that we have not met these goals, although the Corporation will develop a reasonable forum for addressing such issues when they arise.
