Article VI – Purpose

The Purpose of this corporation is: Electronic security and lighting systems installation and related services as well as any or all-lawful business permitted under the laws of the United States, the State of Florida, and any other state, county, territory or nation.

Article VII – Duration

The corporation shall exist perpetually until dissolved in a manner provided by law, or as provided in the regulations adopted by its directors.

Article VIII – Pre-emptive Rights

Every shareholder, upon the sale of stock by the corporation whether it be previously unissued shares authorized in the Articles of Incorporation filed originally or new shares created by amendment thereto, shall have the right to purchase his pro-rata share thereof at the same price and under the same terms at which it is offered to others.

No shareholder, director nor officer is permitted to encumber the corporation without the written consent of the other shareholders.

Article IX- Beginning of Corporate Existence

The date when the corporate existence of this corporation shall begin business shall be the time of filing of these Articles of Incorporation by the Department of State.

Article X- Limitation of Liability

Each director, stockholder and officer, in consideration for his services, shall, in the absence of fraud, be indemnified, whether then in office or not, for the reasonable cost and expenses incurred by him in connection with the defense of, or for advice concerning any claim asserted or proceeding brought against him by reason of his being or having been a director, stockholder or officer of the corporation or of any subsidiary of the corporation, whether or not wholly owned, to the maximum extent permitted by law. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be inclusive of any other rights to which any director, stockholder or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.

The rights accruing to any person under the foregoing provisions shall not exclude any other right to which he may be lawfully entitled, nor shall anything herein contained restrict the right of the corporation to indemnify or reimburse such person in any proper case even though not specifically provided for herein.

Article XI- Self Dealing

No contract or other transaction between the corporation and other corporations, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of the corporation is or are interested in a contract or transaction, or are directors or officers of any other corporation, and any director or directors, individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person or person's firm or corporation, and each and every person who may become a director of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from this contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in any way interested, provided by the fact that he is so interested shall be disclosed or shall be known to the Board of Directors of the corporation, or such member thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the Board at which action upon such contract or transaction shall be taken. Any director of the corporation may vote upon any transaction with the corporation without regard to the fact that he is also a director of such subsidiary or corporation.

Article XII- Amendments

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by it to the stockholders and approved at the stockholders meeting by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the Directors and all the Stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.
