No director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director; provided that this Article VI shall not eliminate the liability of a director for any act or omission for which such elimination of liability is not permitted under the Florida Business Corporation Act. No amendment to the Florida Business Corporation Act that further limits the acts or omissions for which elimination of liability is permitted shall affect the liability of a director for any act or omission that occurs prior to the effective date of such amendment.

Article VII.

Action required or permitted by the Florida Business Corporation Act to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken pursuant to written consent by shareholders having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all shareholders entitled to vote on the action were present and voted.

Article VIII.

A. Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent not prohibited by law any Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the Person in connection with such Proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall not indemnify any Person from or on account of acts or omissions of such Person of a type for which liability could not be eliminated for a director under Section 607.0850 of the Florida Business Corporation Act.

B. Advancement of Expenses. Expenses incurred by a Person in defending a Proceeding shall in all cases be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding at the written request of such Person, if the Person:

The term "Person" means any individual serving in a capacity described in this Paragraph.

D. Non-Exclusivity and Continuity of Rights. This Article VIII: (i) shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any statute, agreement, general or specific action of the board of directors, vote of stockholders or otherwise, both as to action in the official capacity of the Person indemnified and as to action in another capacity while holding office, (ii) shall continue as to a Person who has ceased to be a director or officer, (iii) shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such Person, and (iv) shall extend to all claims for indemnification or advancement of expenses made after the adoption of this Article VIII.

E. Amendments. Any repeal of this Article VIII shall only be prospective and no repeal or modification hereof shall adversely affect the rights under this Article VIII in effect at the time of the alleged occurrence of any action or omission to act that is the cause of any Proceeding.
