ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Timothy F. Malloy, Esq. P.A.

The undersigned, acting as the incorporator of Timothy F. Malloy, Esq. P.A. under the Florida Business Corporation Act and the Professional Service Corporation Act, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the corporation is:

Timothy F. Malloy, Esq. P.A.

ARTICLE II. CORPORATE PURPOSE

The corporation may engage in every aspect of the practice of Law and shall not engage in any business other than the practice of Law.

ARTICLE III. CORPORATE POWER

The corporation shall have all the powers granted to all corporations organized under the Florida Business Corporation Act and the Professional Service Corporation Act except that the corporation shall not have the power to engage in any business other than the rendition of the professional services for which it was incorporated as set forth in Article II. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation may invest its funds in bonds, stocks, mortgages, real estate, and other types of investment, and the corporation may own any real and personal property that is necessary for the rendition of the professional services set forth in Article II.

ARTICLE IV. RENDITION OF PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

The corporation shall render the professional services described in Article II only through its agents, officers, directors, employees, and representatives who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized in the State of Florida to practice Law or provide the Legal services requested. The terms "agents," "officers," "employees," and "representatives" shall not include clerks, secretaries, bookkeepers, technicians, and other assistants who are not usually and ordinarily considered by custom

ARTICLE VII. INITIAL REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The street address of the initial registered office of the corporation is 109 Locust Dr., Brandon, FL 33511 and the name of the corporation's initial registered agent at that address is Timothy F. Malloy.

ARTICLE VIII. LIMITATION ON ISSUANCE AND TRANSFER OF STOCK

The corporation may issue its capital stock only to individuals who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to practice Law in the State of Florida and who are agents, officers, or employees of the corporation. In the event that a shareholder:

- (a) becomes legally disqualified to practice Law in the state of Florida;
- (b) is elected to a public office or accepts employment that, pursuant to law, places restrictions or limitations upon the rendition of professional services as a[n] attorney,
- (c) sells, assigns, conveys, pledges, transfers, hypothecates, or otherwise disposes of, or attempts to sell, assign, convey, pledge, transfer, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of, any shares of capital stock in the corporation to any person ineligible by law or by the Articles of Incorporation to be a shareholder in the corporation, or if the sale, pledge, transfer, assignment, conveyance, hypothecation, or other disposition of, or attempt to sell, assign, convey, pledge, transfer, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of, any shares of capital stock in the corporation is made in a manner prohibited by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Bylaws of the corporation; or

- (d) suffers an execution to be levied upon his or her capital stock, or the capital stock is subjected to sale or other process, the effect of which is to vest any legal or equitable interest in the capital stock in some person other than the shareholder, the capital stock of the shareholder immediately shall be deemed forfeited; the corporation immediately shall cancel the shares of capital stock owned of record by the shareholder; and the shareholder or other person in possession of the capital stock shall be entitled only to receive payments for the value of the capital stock which, in the absence of a bylaw provision, a provision in the Articles of Incorporation, a written agreement between the corporation and its shareholders, or a written agreement among its shareholders, shall be the book value as of the last day of the month preceding the month in which any of the events enumerated above occurs. The shareholder whose shares of capital stock become forfeited and are cancelled by the corporation shall immediately cease to be a shareholder, and except as to the shareholder's right to receive payment for the capital stock in accordance with the foregoing provision and the payment of any other sums then lawfully due and owing to the shareholder by the corporation, the shareholder shall terminate his or her employment with the corporation and shall have no further financial interest of any kind in the corporation.

ARTICLE IX. ALIENATION OF STOCK

No shareholder of the corporation may sell, assign, convey, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any of his or her shares of capital stock in the corporation except to another individual who is duly qualified to be a shareholder of the corporation.

The corporation's Board of Directors is specifically authorized from time to time to adopt bylaws, not inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation, restraining the alienation of shares of capital stock of the corporation and providing for the purchase or redemption by the corporation of its shares of capital stock.

ARTICLE X. INCORPORATORS

The name and street address of the incorporator is:

Timothy F. Malloy
109 Locust Dr.
Brandon, FL 33511

The incorporator assigns to the corporation his rights under section 607.0201, Florida Statutes, to constitute a corporation, and he assigns to those persons designated by the Board of Directors any rights he has as incorporator to those persons designated by the Board of Directors any rights he has as incorporator to acquire any of the capital stock of the corporation; this assignment shall become effective on the date corporate existence begins.
