Re: Document No. W09000013566 – Eggs, Inc. – Replaced By The Pelican Diner, Inc.

Dear Ms. McKnight:

Per our telephone conversations, yesterday and today, my Clients, the Incorporators, withdraw their proposed Articles of Incorporation for Eggs, Inc., which you rejected on March 23, 2009, for reason of name availability conflict. Instead, they herewith submit their proposed Articles of Incorporation for The Pelican Diner, Inc., including attached Registered Agent and Registered Office designation. In our conversation, this morning, you indicated that the new name is available. The enclosed Articles are identical to those submitted for Eggs, Inc., save for the name change and execution date by the Incorporators. An extra executed copy is enclosed for certification and return to me.

You indicate that you will apply my $78.75 check for Eggs, Inc., dated March 19, 2009, as the fees for The Pelican Diner, Inc. submission, including $35.00, as filing fee; $35.00, for registered agent designation; and, $8.75, for the certified copy.

Your assistance will be very much appreciated, just as I appreciate your courtesy in our conversations. Please call me, if you have any questions about this filing.

Sincerely yours,

Martin E. Wall
