Article IX - Bylaws

Except as otherwise provided in these Articles of Incorporation, in furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to make, repeal, alter, amend and rescind any or all of the Bylaws of the corporation.

Article X - Election of Directors

Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the Bylaws of the corporation shall so provide.

Article XI - Meetings of Stockholders

Meetings of the stockholders may be held within or without the State of Florida, as the Bylaws may provide. The books of the corporation may be kept (subject to any provision contained in the statutes) outside the State of Florida at such place or places as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors or in the Bylaws of the corporation.

Article XII - Liability

A director of the corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by the Florida Business Corporation Act as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended, not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under the Florida Business Corporation Act, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If the Business Corporation Act of the State of Florida is amended, after approval by the stockholders of this Article, to authorize corporate action to further eliminate or limit the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Business Corporation Act of the State of Florida, as so amended.

Any amendment, repeal or modification of this Article XII by the stockholders of the corporation shall not apply to or adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such amendment, repeal, modification or adoption.

Article XIII - Amendment

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

Article XIV - Indemnification

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the corporation shall provide indemnification of (and advance of expenses to) the directors and officers of the corporation and is authorized to provide indemnification of (and advancement of expenses to) employees and agents of the corporation (and any other persons to which Business Corporation Act of the State of Florida permits the corporation to provide indemnification). In addition, the corporation is authorized to
