ARTICLE IX

Indemnification of Officers and Directors.

(a) The professional association shall indemnify any director or officer of the corporation who is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation or as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, association, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise:

(1) against expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with an action, suit or proceeding (other than one by or in the right of the professional association) if he acted in good faith, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; and

(2) against expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of an action or suit by or in the right of the professional association, if he acted in good faith.

(b) The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(c) No indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the professional association.

(d) Any indemnification under section (a) (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the professional association only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in section (a). Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceedings, or (2) if such quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable and a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by a majority of members of the corporation representing a majority of the total votes of the membership.

(e) Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation from time to time as incurred, rather than only after the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding. Payment of such expenses shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in each specific case only after receipt by the corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amounts if it shall later develop that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the professional association.

(f) The indemnification provided by this resolution shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the corporation's directors, officers, employees or agents may be entitled under the professional association's By-Laws, agreement, vote of members or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to actions in their official capacities and as to actions in another capacity while holding such offices or positions, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer or employee and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, indemnification provided under this resolution shall not include indemnification for any action of a director, officer or employee of the professional association for which indemnification is deemed to be against public policy. In the event that indemnification provided under this resolution is deemed to be against public policy, such an event shall not invalidate or affect any other right of indemnification herein provided.

(h) The professional association shall have the power, but shall not be obligated, to purchase and maintain indemnification insurance to provide coverage for any liability asserted against any director, officer or employee of the professional association in any of his capacities as described in paragraph (a), whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her under this Article.

(i) Any person requesting indemnification shall first look to any insurance maintained by the professional association for indemnification against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement (as described above). The professional association shall be obligated to indemnify such person (if entitled to indemnification by the corporation) only to the extent such insurance does not indemnify such person. In the event that any expenses, judgments, fines or amounts paid in settlement are paid pursuant to insurance maintained by such corporation, the corporation shall have no obligation to reimburse the insurance company.

ARTICLE X

Transactions in Which Directors or Officers are Interested.

(a) No contract or transaction between the professional association and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association, or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be invalid, void, or voidable solely for such reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board or committee thereof which authorized the contract or transaction, or solely because said officer's or director's vote is counted for such purpose. No director or officer of that professional association shall incur liability by reason of the fact that said director or officer may be interested in any such contract or transaction.

(b) Interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorized the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE XI

The name and address of the incorporator is Philip R. Shears, 139 Hibiscus Lane, Deltona, Florida 32738, Volusia County.

ARTICLE XII

Every shareholder of the professional association, upon the sale for cash of any new stock of this corporation of the same kind, class or series as that which he already holds, shall have the right to purchase his pro rata share thereof (as nearly as may be done without issuance of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others.

ARTICLE XIII

1. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the first Monday of January of each year, or at such other time as may be fixed by the By Laws, at which time the Board of Directors shall be elected and such other business as may properly come before the meeting may be considered and transacted.

2. The officers of the professional association shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at a meeting of the Board to be held annually following the annual shareholders' meeting.

3. The time, place and manner of calling meetings of the shareholders or directors shall be fixed by the By Laws of the corporation. The Board of Directors may provide for the election of and prescribe the duties of such other officers and agents as the Board may deem advisable and proper, and may take such action not inconsistent with the Articles of the professional association, and the By Laws of the professional association and the laws of the State of Florida, as such Board may deem advisable for the conduct and operation of the business of the professional association.

4. The Board of Directors shall appoint a resident agent as required by the State of Florida.

ARTICLE XIV

In accordance with Section 607.0203, Florida Statutes, the date when corporate existence shall commence is the date of subscription and acknowledgment of these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE XV

The highest amount of liability to which this corporation can, at any time, subject itself, shall be unlimited.

A special meeting of the incorporator and his or her assigns shall be held, upon the call of the President, for the purpose of completing the organization of the corporation and adoption of the By Laws and the transaction of such other business as may be desired.
