ARTICLE XIII

3. The Board of Directors shall adopt the initial By-Laws. The power to alter, amend or repeat the By-Laws or to adopt new By-Laws is vested in the Board of Directors. The By-Laws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Florida or these Articles of Incorporation.

4. Any contract or other transaction between the corporation and any one or more of its directors, or between the corporation and any firm of which one or more of its directors are members or employees, or in which they are interested, or between the corporation and any corporation or association of which one or more of its directors are shareholders, members, directors, officers or employees, or in which they are interested, shall be valid for all purposes notwithstanding the presence of the director or directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation that acts upon, or in reference to, the contract or transaction, and notwithstanding his or her participation in the action, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors, shall, nevertheless, authorize or ratify the contract or transaction the interested director or directors to be counted in determining whether a quorum is present and to be entitled to be entitled to vote on such authorization or ratification.

5. The corporation shall indemnify each director and officer of the corporation against all or any portion of any expenses reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with or arising out of any action, suit or proceeding in which he/she may be involved by reason of his/her being or having been an officer or director of the corporation (whether or not he/she continues to be an officer or director of the corporation at the time of incurring such expenses), such expenses to include the cost of reasonable settlements (other than amounts paid to corporation itself) made with the view to curtailment of cost of litigation, except that no sums shall be paid in connection with any such settlement unless the corporation is advised by independent counsel that the officer or director so indemnified was not derelict in the performance of his/her duty as such director or an officer. The corporation shall not, however, indemnify such director or officer with respect to matters as to which he/she shall be finally adjudged in any such action, suit or proceeding to have derelict in the performance of his/her duty as such director or officer, nor in respect of any matter on any settlement or compromise is effected if the total expense including the cost of such settlement, shall substantially exceed the expense which might be reasonably incurred by such director or officer in conducting such litigation to a final conclusion and in no event shall anything herein contained be so construed as to protect or authorize the corporation to indemnify any such director or officer against any liability to the corporation or to its security holders to which he/she would otherwise be subject by reasons of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of other fights to which any director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.
