No one other than an individual who is duly licensed as a physician under the laws of the State of Florida may own any corporate stock of this Corporation; nor may any shareholder enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of the stock.

(a) If any officer, shareholder, agent or employee of this Corporation who has been rendering professional services to the public becomes legally disqualified to render such services within the State of Florida, or is elected to a public office or accepts employment that, pursuant to existing law, places restriction or limitations upon his continued rendering of such professional services, he shall sever all employment and terminate all financial interest in the Corporation.

(b) No shareholder of the Corporation may sell or transfer his stock in this Corporation except to another individual who is eligible to be a shareholder of the Corporation, and such sale or transfer may be made only after the same shall have been approved, at a stockholders' meeting specifically called for that purpose, by not less than a majority of the outstanding stock at such shareholders' meeting, exclusive of the stock proposed to be sold. The shares of stock held by the shareholder proposing to sell or transfer his shares may not be voted or counted for any purpose of said meeting.

(c) In the event that there is more than one shareholder in the Corporation, before stock is issued to shareholders they must have negotiated with the other shareholders and/or the Corporation a buy-and-sell agreement providing for the redemption or disposition of their stock in the event their interest in the Corporation is terminated for any reason. An executed copy of the buy-and-sell agreement must be filed with the Secretary of the Corporation and made a part of the records of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Incorporator has executed these Articles of Incorporation this 8th day of March, 2010.
