Your business is registered with our office as a corporation. A "sole proprietorship" is registered as a fictitious name. If you are using the term "sole proprietorship" to refer to only one/sole officer/director, yes, there is only one/sole officer/director listed for your corporation.

Since Articles of Incorporation do not request your tax id number, it cannot be added to the articles.

However, we are forwarding your tax number to the appropriate department to add to our database.

Dear FL Incorporation Help Staff,

I am trying to verify the category in which my business is incorporated under. I would like verification that it is a Sole Proprietorship.

I also do not see the tax ID number on the Articles of Incorporation, can this be added. I have attached documentation.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call me.

Thanks,

Tracy
