ARTICLE VII

The business of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors, which shall consist of not less than one nor more than three (3) as shall from time to time be designated in the by-laws of this corporation, and a majority thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

ARTICLE VIII

This corporation shall have, in addition to a president and secretary-treasurer such additional officers as may be created from time to time and under the authorization of its bylaws.

ARTICLE IX

The shareholders of this corporation shall have the preemptive right to acquire any issues of shares or securities of this corporation from shareholders.

ARTICLE X

A. Subject to the corporation's remaining a close corporation as defined under Florida Law, the corporation is organized as a close corporation.

B. Subject to the corporation's remaining a close corporation, no shares of any class and no securities evidencing the right to acquire shares of the corporation shall be issued by means of any public offering, solicitation, or advertisement.

C. If the corporation loses its status as a close corporation a special meeting of the shareholders shall be called in the manner provided by Florida law for the election of directors. The number of directors to be elected shall be fixed by the bylaws of the corporation, and until changed in the manner provided in the bylaws, shall be not more than three.

D. The holders of at least two-thirds of the corporation's outstanding shares or securities evidencing a right to acquire shares, whether entitled to vote by the articles of incorporation or not, may by affirmative vote elect to terminate the corporation's status as a close corporation.

ARTICLE XI
