Dear Mr. Alexander:

Congratulations, you have been certified by the Supreme Court of Florida as a Family mediator for a two year period beginning September 10, 2010. Your name has been added to the list of certified mediators; however, if you would like to personally notify individuals of your certification, you may do so. Your certification number is 26191F.

All certified mediators are required to report completion of 16 hours of continuing mediator education (CME) for each area of certification when submitting their renewal. A copy of Administrative Order AOSC08-23 (renewal excerpts) which contains these requirements along with a form to report your CME are enclosed with this letter. You will be sent an application for mediator renewal approximately three months prior to your renewal date of September 10, 2012.

Your certificate is being prepared and will be sent to the Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court for signature. When we receive the certificate, we will forward it on to you. Please contact the office at the number listed above should you have any questions regarding this information or visit our website at www.flcourts.org. Click on "Alternative Dispute Resolution" for lists of continuing education programs, the Mediator Ethics Advisory Opinions and other information you may need.

Cordially,
