The Board of Directors is hereby expressly authorized to issue the common or preferred stock of this Corporation in one or more series or classes as it may determine by resolution from time to time. In the resolution establishing a series or class of stock, the Board of Directors shall give to the series or class a distinctive designation so as to distinguish it from all other series and classes of stock, and the Board of Directors shall determine the number of shares in such series and shall fix the preferences, limitations and relative rights thereof. All of the shares of any one series shall be alike in every particular.

Once such areas of interest are delineated, all such business opportunities within such areas of interest that come to the attention of the Directors, officers and other members of management of this Corporation shall be disclosed promptly to this Corporation and made available to it. The Board of Directors may reject any business opportunity presented to it and thereafter any Director, officer or other member of management may avail himself of such opportunity. Until such time as this Corporation, through its Board of Directors has designated an area of interest, the Directors, officers and other members of management of this Corporation shall be free to engage in such areas of interest on their own and this doctrine shall not limit the right of any Director, officer or other member of management of this Corporation to continue a business existing prior to the time that such area of interest is designated by the Corporation. This corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including appeals (other than an action, suit, or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, decrees, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person: 1) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation and 2) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.
