ARTICLE EIGHT

MANAGEMENT

The activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a board of directors. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole board shall be such as from time shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the By-Laws, but in no case shall the number be less than two. Management of this corporation is reserved to its members, whose names and addresses are stated above. The board of directors shall be elected by the members at the annual meeting of the corporation to be held on such date as the By-Laws may provide, and shall hold office until their successors are respectively elected and qualified. The board of directors may, by resolution or resolutions, passed by a majority of the whole board, designate one or more committees, which to the extent provided in said resolutions or in the By-Laws of the corporation shall have and may exercise all the powers of the board of directors in the management of the activities and affairs of the corporation and may have power to authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it; and such committee or committees shall have such names as may be stated in the By-Laws or as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the board of directors. The directors of the corporation may, if the By-Laws so provide, be classified as to term of office. The corporation may elect such officers as the By-Laws may specify, who shall subject to the provision of the Statute, have titles and exercise such duties as the By-Laws may provide. The board of directors is expressly authorized to make, alter or repeal the By-Laws of this corporation. This corporation may in its By-Laws confer powers upon its board of directors in addition to the foregoing, and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon them by the Statute, provided that the board of directors shall not exercise any power of authority conferred herein or by law upon the members.

ARTICLE NINE

MEETINGS

Meetings of members may be held without the State of Florida, if the By-Laws so provide. The books of the corporation may be kept (subject to any provision contained in the Statute) outside the State of Florida at such place or places as may be from time to time designated by the board of directors.

ARTICLE TEN

AMENDMENTS

The board of directors reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these articles of 6.

incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by the Statute, and all rights conferred upon members herein are granted subject to this reservation.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, being each of the incorporators herein before named, for the purpose of forming a corporation pursuant to Florida General Corporation Act, to make these Articles, hereby declaring and certifying that the facts herein stated are true, and accordingly have hereunto set our hands and seals this _____ day of January, 2011.
