Article VII: No holder of any of the shares of the Corporation shall, as such holder, have any right to purchase or subscribe for any shares of any class which the Corporation may issue or sell, whether or not such shares are exchangeable for any shares of the Corporation of any other class or classes, and whether such shares are issued out of the number of shares authorized by the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation as originally filed, or by any amendment thereof, or out of shares of the Corporation acquired by it after the issue thereof; nor shall any holder of any of the shares of the Corporation, as such holder, have any right to purchase or subscribe for any obligations which the Corporation may issue or sell that shall be convertible into, or exchangeable for, any shares of the Corporation of any class or classes, or to which shall be attached or shall appertain to any warrant or warrants or other instrument or instruments that shall confer upon the holder thereof the right to subscribe for, or purchase from the Corporation any shares of any class or classes.

Article VIII: The purposes for which the Corporation is organized, in addition to engaging in any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the provisions of the Florida Statutes, are the design, manufacture, distribution and sale of doors.

Article IX: The period of duration of the corporation is perpetual.

Article X: The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent legally permissible under the provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended and supplemented, indemnify and hold harmless any and all persons whom it shall have power to indemnify under said provisions from and against any and all liabilities (including expenses) imposed upon or reasonably incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or other proceeding in which he may be involved or with which he may be threatened, or other matters referred to in or covered by said provisions both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Corporation. Such indemnification provided shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any Bylaw, Agreement or Resolution adopted by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon after notice.
