ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized:

This corporation is organized and operated for the preservation, exhibition and the fostering of understanding of Anthony Bonair's Works of Art at the highest possible gallery and scholarly standards.

To create the premier showplace for exceptional visual arts, and expose the human condition through his photographic archive. Accentuate the technical skills of his Multiple Exposure Medium and the artistry that is involved with this medium.

To publish and to expose the art of the carnival experience, while exposing the diversity of the technique of his carnival photographs, and to pay tribute to the mask makers, costume designers, and everyone associated with the carnival experience.

To include gallery programs that will seek to encourage experimentation through the support presentation of new works by emerging and established artists, fostering creativity and art excellence, while providing public awareness, participation and appreciation.

Design new standards of art practices to create a shift in consciousness from the bottom-line to the heart-line that is grounded in Spiritual values and appeals to an international market, adding to the ontology of distinctions from which we ground ourselves in business.

Through exhibitions, outreach and related educational programming the gallery is dedicated to the cultural enrichment of our communities at large.
