The Board is authorized to determine the designations, preferences, privileges and powers and relative, participating, optional or other special rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the above classes of capital stock.

The designations, preferences, privileges and powers and relative, participating, optional or other special rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the Common Stock and the Preferred Stock shall be as follows:

(2) After the automatic conversion of Series A Preferred described in Section 3(c)(v) below, the former Series A Preferred shareholders, whose shares of Series A Preferred automatically converted to Class A Voting Common Stock, shall have the right to immediately participate in any dividends declared and/or paid to holders of the Corporation's Common Stock, regardless of whether such Common Stock dividends were declared prior to the time of such automatic conversion.

(ii) Liquidation Events. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Event, the funds and assets of the Corporation that may be legally distributed to the Corporation's shareholders (the "Available Funds and Assets") shall be distributed to the Corporation's shareholders in the following manner:

(1) Liquidation Preference. Holders of the then-outstanding shares of Series A Preferred shall be entitled to be paid, out of the Available Funds and Assets, and prior to and in preference to any payment or distribution (or any setting a part of any payment or distribution) of any Available Funds and Assets to holders of any other shares of Capital Stock ranking junior to the Series A Preferred upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Event, a total aggregate amount equal to $2,690,000, less the sum of any prior dividends or distributions actually paid to Series A Preferred shareholders by the Corporation, plus a sum equal to all declared but unpaid dividends, if any, on each such share Series A Preferred. If, upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Event, the Available Funds and Assets shall be insufficient to permit the payment to holders of Series A Preferred of their full preferential amounts described in this Section 3(c)(ii)(1), then all remaining Available Funds and Assets shall be distributed ratably among the holders of Series A Preferred.

(2) Remaining Assets After Preferential Payments. If there are any Available Funds and Assets remaining after the payment or distribution (or the setting aside for payment or distribution) to the holders of the Series A Preferred of their full preferential amounts described in Section 3(c)(ii)(1) above, then all Series A Preferred and all Series B Preferred shall automatically convert to Class A Voting Common Stock in accordance with Section 3(c)(v) below and all such remaining, Available Funds and Assets shall be distributed to the holders of the then-outstanding Common Stock ratably according to the number of shares of Common Stock held by such holders.

(iii) Voting Rights. On all matters to come before the shareholders of the Corporation, the holders of Series A Preferred shall have that number of votes per share (rounded to the nearest whole share) equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Series A Preferred held on the record date for the determination of the holders of the shares entitled to vote (the "Record Date"), or, if no Record Date is established, at the date such vote is taken or any written consent of shareholders is first solicited, and (b) 2.79. Except as otherwise expressly provided by these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or by applicable law, the holders of Series A Preferred shall vote together with the holders of the outstanding shares of Capital Stock (other than holders of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock), and not as a separate class, series or voting group.

(iv) Protective Provisions. In addition to voting rights provided by Section 3(c)(iii) above, the consent of the holders of a majority of the then-outstanding shares of Series A Preferred, given in person or by proxy, either in writing or by vote at a meeting called for that purpose at which the holders of the Series A Preferred shall vote as a separate class, shall be required for any action that amends or repeals any provision of, or adds any provision to, the Articles of Incorporation if such action would adversely alter or change the rights, preferences; privileges, powers or restrictions of the shares of Series A Preferred so as to adversely affect such shares separately as a class. For the avoidance of doubt, and not for purposes of limitation, the holders of Series A Preferred shall have the right to vote as a separate class, series or voting group in connection with or related to (a) any increase or decrease in the total number of authorized shares of any class of Capital Stock; or (b) the creation of any new class or series of stock or any other securities convertible into equity securities of the Corporation having a preference over or being on parity with the Series A Preferred with respect to any matter.

The Corporation shall, at all times ensure that an adequate number of shares of Class A Voting Common Stock remain authorized for issuance upon conversion of the Series A Preferred hereby.

(vi) Amendment. Any term relating to the Series A Preferred may be amended and the observance of any term relating to the Series A Preferred may be waived (either generally or in a particular instance and either retroactively or prospectively) only with the vote or written consent of the Board and the holders of a majority of the then-outstanding Series A Preferred. Any amendment or waiver so affected shall bind the Corporation and any then-current or future holder of shares of Series A Preferred.

(d) Series B Preferred Stock.

(1) Until Series A Preferred shareholders receive aggregate dividends in the amount of $2,690,000, the Corporation may not pay or declare dividends on any other shares of the Corporation's Capital Stock, including but not limited to Series B Preferred

(2) After the automatic conversion of Series B Preferred described in Section 3(d)(iv) below, the former Series B Preferred shareholders, whose shares of Series B Preferred automatically converted to Class A Voting Common Stock, shall have the right to immediately participate in any dividends declared and/or paid to holders of the Corporation's Common Stock, regardless of whether such Common Stock dividends were declared prior to the time of such automatic conversion.

(ii) Liquidation Events. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Event, the funds and assets of the Corporation that may be legally distributed to the Corporation's shareholders (the "Available Funds and Assets") shall be distributed to the Corporation's shareholders in the following manner:

(1) Liquidation Preference. Holders of the then-outstanding shares of Series A Preferred shall be entitled to be paid, out of the Available Funds and Assets, and prior to and in preference to any payment or distribution (or any setting a part of any payment or distribution) of any Available Funds and Assets to holders of any other shares of Capital Stock ranking junior to the Series A Preferred (including Series B Preferred) upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Event, a total aggregate amount equal to $2,690,000, less the sum of any prior dividends actually paid to Series A Preferred shareholders, plus a sum equal to all declared but unpaid dividends, if any, on each such share Series A Preferred. If upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Event, the Available Funds and Assets shall be insufficient to permit the payment to holders of Series A Preferred of their full preferential amounts described in this Section 3(a), then all remaining Available Funds and Assets shall be distributed ratably among the holders of Series A Preferred.

(2) Remaining Assets After Preferential Payments. If there are any Available Funds and Assets remaining after the payment or distribution (or the setting aside for payment or distribution) to the holders of the Series A Preferred of their full preferential amounts described in Section 3(d)(ii)(1) above, then all Series A Preferred and all Series B Preferred shall automatically convert to Class A Voting Common Stock in accordance with Section 3(d)(iv) below and all such remaining Available Funds and Assets shall be distributed to the holders of the then-outstanding Common Stock ratably according to the number of shares of Common Stock held by such holders.

(3) Non-Cash Distributions. If any of the assets of the Corporation are to be distributed other than in cash under this Section 3, then the Board shall determine in its reasonable judgment the value of the assets to be distributed.

(iii) Voting Rights. On all matters to come before the shareholders of the Corporation, the holders of Series B Preferred shall have that number of votes per share (rounded to the nearest whole share) equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Series B Preferred held on the record date for the determination of the holders of the shares entitled to vote (the "Record Date"), or, if no Record Date is established, at the date such vote is taken or any written consent of shareholders is first solicited, and (b) the fraction 4/11. Except as otherwise expressly provided by these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation or by applicable law, the holders of Series B Preferred shall vote together with the holders of the outstanding shares of Capital Stock (other than holders of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock), and not as a separate class, series or voting group.

(iv) Automatic Conversion. At the time the Series A Preferred shareholders receive a cumulative total of $2,690,000 in dividends and/or distributions paid by the Corporation, the Series B Preferred shall automatically convert, without any further action by the Corporation, Board, or the Corporation's shareholders, to Class A Voting Common Stock on a one-to-one (1:1) basis, provided however, that the Conversion Ratio shall automatically adjust to account for, and at the time of, any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or other issuances of any Capital Stock, in each case such that after the automatic conversion contemplated by this Section 3(d)(iv), the former Series B Preferred shareholders will collectively own twenty-two percent (22%) of the issued and outstanding Common Stock on a fully-diluted basis (exclusive of any other Common Stock owned by such shareholders prior to such conversion). The Corporation shall, at all times ensure that an adequate number of shares of Class A Voting Common Stock remain authorized for issuance upon conversion of the Series B Preferred hereby.

(v) Amendment. Any term relating to the Series B Preferred may be amended and the observance of any term relating to the Series B Preferred may be waived (either generally or in a particular instance and either retroactively or prospectively) only with the vote or written consent of the Board and the holders of a majority of the then-outstanding Series B
