Dear Gina:

This letter is a follow up to our discussion today regarding Reno, Davis & Associates. We filed to domesticate our Maryland Corporation and inadvertently used the form. We completed the form for "Other Business Entities" rather than the form for "Domestication". Therefore, the application was sent to you and not processed. Today during our phone conversation, you advised us to send you the completed Certificate of Domestication for corporations and a check for the balance owed which is $15.(128.75 less the payment already made of 113.75)

You agreed to take the forms and check to the office of corporations so they can process the paperwork.

Thank you very much for your assistance. Please contact me, either by telephone or email if you have any questions or additional concerns.

Sincerely

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "David Hill", written over a horizontal line.

David Hill
