ARTICLE IX

The following additional provisions: for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and creating, dividing, limiting and regulating the powers of the corporation, its stockholders and directors, are hereby adopted as part of these Articles of Incorporation:

(a) The Board of Directors from time to time shall determine whether, and to what extent, and at what times and places, and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the corporation, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders.

(b) The directors may prescribe a method or methods for replacement of lost stock certificates, and prescribe reasonable conditions by way of security, upon the issue of new certificates therefore.

Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, no holder of stock of the corporation shall be entitled as such, as a matter of right, to purchase or subscribe for any stock of any class which the corporation may issue or sell, whether or not exchangeable for any stock of the corporation of any class or classes, and whether out of unissued shares authorized by the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation as originally filed or by an amendment thereof, or out of shares of stock of the corporation acquired by it after the issue thereof, and whether issued for cash or otherwise, nor shall he be entitled to any right of subscription to any thereof; nor, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, shall any holder of any share of the capital stock of the corporation be entitled as such, as a matter of right, to purchase or subscribe for any obligations which the corporation may issue or sell that may be convertible into or exchangeable for any shares of the stock of the corporation or any class or classes, or to which shall be attached or appurtenant any warrant or warrants, or any instruments or instrument that shall confer upon the holder or holders of such obligations the right to subscribe for or purchase from the corporation any share of its capital stock of any class or classes.

(d) No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of the corporation is or are interested in, or is a director officer, or are directors or officers of such other corporation, and any director or directors, individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of the corporation, or in which the corporation is interested, and no contract, act or transaction of the corporation with any person or persons, firm or corporation, shall be invalidated by reason of such relationship, and each and every person who may become a director of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that may otherwise exist from thus contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in any wise interested. Any director of the corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the corporation and any subsidiary or controlled company without regard to the fact that he is also a director of such subsidiary or controlled company.

(e) Each and every director and officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all costs, expenses and liabilities, including attorneys' fees at all trial and appellate levels reasonably incurred or imposed upon him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding in which he becomes involved by reason of his being or having been a Director or officer of the Corporation. The foregoing provision for indemnification shall apply whether or not such person is a Director or officer at the time such cost expense or liability is incurred.

1. To the extent that a Director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any such action, suit or proceeding, such Director or officer shall have an automatic right of indemnity under this Article.

2. In all cases other than those set forth in the foregoing Paragraph (e) (1), indemnification of a Director or officer shall be only upon a determination that such indemnification is proper in the circumstances as the Director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Corporation. With respect to any criminal action or proceeding, indemnification shall be had only upon the additional determination that such Director officer had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

3. In the event any such action, suit or proceeding is resolved by settlement, the indemnification provided for in this Article shall not be automatic and shall apply only when such settlement has been properly approved and a determination as set forth in foregoing Paragraph (e) (2) has been made.

4. No indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which a Director or officer shall or has been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in performance of his duty to the Corporation unless, and only to the extent, that the Court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that despite adjudication of liability, but in view of all circumstances of the case, such Director or officer is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court shall deem proper. No indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which a Director or officer shall have admitted to liability for negligence or misconduct in performance of his duty to the Corporation.

5. The determination required under Paragraph (e) (2) above shall be made:

(i) By the Board of Directors, by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suite or proceeding;

(ii) If such quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or

(iii) By the shareholders, by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of shareholders who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding.

6. The foregoing right of indemnification provided in this Article shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any and all right of indemnification to which a Director officer of the Corporation may be entitled under statute or Common law or under any policy of insurance.

(f) Directors may set salaries or other compensation of officers without prior stockholder consent or subsequent stockholder ratification, including setting salaries or other compensation, for members of the Board who may also from time to time serve as officers of the corporation.

ARTICLE X

These Articles of incorporation may be amended in the manner provided, by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders having the right to vote on any such amendment, and approved at a stockholders' meeting by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the directors and all the stockholders entitled to vote thereon sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment to these Articles of Incorporation be made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has made and subscribed these Articles of Incorporation at City of Ft. Lauderdale, Broward County, Florida, for the uses and purposes aforesaid, this 7 day of September, 2012
