The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each director (or committee member), which consent(s) shall be filed in the official minute books of the Corporation in which proceedings of meetings of the Board of Directors are recorded. Any action taken by written consent under this Article VI shall be deemed effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies otherwise, and shall have the same effect as a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

ARTICLE VII - CALL OF SPECIAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

Except as otherwise required by law or by or pursuant to these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not be required to call or hold a special meeting of shareholders of the Corporation unless (in addition to any other requirement(s) of applicable law or elsewhere in these Articles of Incorporation) (i) the holders of outstanding Common Stock having in the aggregate not less than twenty five per cent (25%) of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the special meeting sign, date and deliver to the Corporation's Secretary one or more written demands for the special meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held; or (ii) the meeting is called by (a) the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution approved by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, (b) the Corporation's Chairman of the Board of Directors or Chief Executive Officer, or (c) the Corporation's Secretary upon the written request of any two or more members of the Board of Directors. be delivered to the Corporation. In order to be effective, the action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, dated and signed by approving shareholders having the requisite number of votes entitled to vote thereon in order to approve the applicable action by the shareholders, and delivered to the Secretary, the President or such other officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the official books of the Corporation in which proceedings of meetings of the shareholders are recorded (the "Shareholder Minute Books"). Whenever action is taken pursuant to this Article VIII, the written consent(s) of shareholders, or the written certificate of the Secretary or report(s) of inspectors who may be appointed to tabulate shareholder consents, shall be filed in the Shareholder Minute Books. No written consent of shareholders shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within 60 days of the date of the earliest dated consent delivered in the manner provided in this Article VIII, written consents signed by the holders of the number of shares required to take action are delivered to the Corporation by delivery as required in this Article VIII. Within ten (10) days after obtaining such authorization by written consent of shareholders, notice must be given to those shareholders who have not consented in writing or who are not entitled to vote on the action, which notice shall comply with the requirements of the FBCA. Any action taken by written consent under this Article VIII shall have the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document. The Bylaws of the Corporation may include rules, procedures and provisions applicable to action(s) by written consent of shareholders not inconsistent with this Article VIII.

ARTICLE IX - LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

To the fullest extent permitted under the FBCA and other applicable law, no member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation is or shall be personally liable to the Corporation or any of its shareholders or any other person for monetary damages for or relating to or in respect of any statement, vote, decision, action or failure to vote, decide or take action by a director or the Board of Directors, unless the breach or failure to perform his or her duties as a director is proven to satisfy the standards set forth in Section 706.0831 of the FBCA (as the same exists or may hereafter be amended). To the fullest extent permitted under the FBCA and other applicable law, and without limiting the preceding sentence in this Article IX, a member of the Board of Directors shall not be or be held liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take action, if he or she performed the duties of his or her office in compliance with the applicable general standards for directors as provided under Section 607.0830 of the FBCA (as the same exists or may hereafter be amended). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the FBCA is amended hereafter to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent authorized by the FBCA, as so amended. Any repeal or modification of this Article IX shall not adversely affect any right, protection or limitation of liability of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE X - INDEMNIFICATION & INSURANCE

H12000239375

H12000239375

Such indemnification shall be authorized if such director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred by this Article X shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending or otherwise participating in any proceeding in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon the Corporation's receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amounts if it shall ultimately be determined and found that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation pursuant to this Article X.

The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time in or pursuant to the Corporation's Bylaws or otherwise by resolution of the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and/or to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article X to directors and officers of the Corporation.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article X shall not be exclusive of any other right(s) which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws of the Corporation, any statute, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Any repeal or modification of this Article X shall not adversely affect any rights to indemnification and/or to the advancement of expenses of a director or officer of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification with respect to any acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

The Corporation shall have the power and authority to purchase and maintain insurance (including, without limitation, errors and omissions insurance) on behalf of and for the benefit of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability or expenses asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability or expenses under the provisions of this Article X.

H12000239375

The Bylaws of the Corporation may include rules, procedures and provisions applicable to indemnification, advancement of expenses and insurance matters not inconsistent with this Article X. The terms "expenses", "liability", "proceeding" and "serving at the request of the corporation" as used herein shall be construed broadly and shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms under Section 607.0850 of the FBCA (as the same exists or may hereafter be amended).

ARTICLE XI – BYLAWS; BYLAW AMENDMENTS

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, each of the Board of Directors and the shareholders of the Corporation is expressly authorized and empowered to make, alter, amend and repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation in any respect not inconsistent with the applicable laws of the State of Florida or with these Articles of Incorporation. The Bylaws of the Corporation may contain any rule, procedure or provision regarding managing the business or regulating the affairs of the Corporation not inconsistent with the applicable laws of the State of Florida or with these Articles of Incorporation. For the shareholders to make, alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation in any respect, such action (in addition to any other vote required under applicable law or elsewhere in these Articles of Incorporation) must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon.
