If any shareholder, director, officer, agent or employee becomes legally disqualified to render such professional services in the State of Florida, his office or employment shall be forthwith terminated, and within 90 days following death, incompetence, bankruptcy, retirement, resignation, expulsion, termination or other legal disqualification of a shareholder, all the shares of such shareholder shall be transferred to or acquired by persons qualified to own such shares, as restricted in the by-laws, or by the

The by-laws of this corporation shall fix the price or method of computing the price, together with the schedule of payment thereof, for acquiring such shares on the event the shares are not otherwise acquired within the 90-day period by persons qualified to own the same. The by-laws shall provide for the manner in which dividends shall be paid on the shares.

4. Distributions from Capital Surplus. The Board of Directors of the corporation may, from time to time, distribute on a pro rata basis to its shareholders, out of the capital surplus of the corporation, a portion of its assets in cash or property.

All powers, duties and responsibilities of the incorporators shall cease at the time of delivery of these Articles of Incorporation to the Florida Secretary of State for filing.

10. Professional Relationship and Responsibility. Nothing in these Articles shall be construed to alter any law applicable to the relationship between persons furnishing and receiving professional services, including but not limited to liability arising therefrom, and the shareholders of the corporation shall be and remain jointly and severally responsible for such liability.

11. Dealings by Directors. No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation, whether or not a majority of the share of the capital stock of such other corporation is owned by this corporation, and no act of the corporation shall be in any way affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of this corporation are pecuniary or otherwise interested in, or are directors or officers of, such other corporation; any director individually, or any firm of which such director may be a member, may be a party to or may be pecuniary or otherwise interested in any contract or transaction of this corporation, provided that the fact that he or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors or a majority thereof; and any director of the corporation who is also a director or officer of such other corporation, or who is so interested, may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of this corporation which shall authorize such contract or transaction, and may vote thereat to authorize such contract or transaction, with like force and effect as if he were not such director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.

12. Directors' Liability. No director shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided, however, that this Article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for (a) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders; (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) authorizing the unlawful payment of a dividend or other distribution of the corporation's capital stock or the unlawful purchase of its capital stock; (d) any violation of law (Director Conflicts of Interest); or (e) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. This article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date on which this Article becomes effective.

13. Indemnification of Officers, Directors, Employees, Agents. Subject to the provisions of this Article, the corporation shall indemnify any all its existing and former directors, officers, employees and agents against all expenses incurred by them and each of them, including but not limited to legal fees, judgments, penalties and amounts paid in settlement or compromise, which may arise or be incurred, rendered or levied in any legal action brought or threatened against any of them for or on account of any action or omission alleged to have been committed while acting within the scope of employment as director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, whether or not any settlement or compromise is approved by a court. Indemnification shall be made by the corporation whether the legal action brought or threatened is by or in the right of the corporation or by any other person.

Whenever any existing or former director, officer, employee or agent shall report to the president of the corporation or the chairman of the Board of Directors that he or she has incurred or may incur expenses, including but not limited to legal fees, judgments, penalties, and amounts paid in settlement or compromise in a legal action brought or threatened against him or her for or on account of any action or omission alleged to have been committed by him or her while acting within the scope of his or her employment as director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, the Board of directors shall, at its next regular or at a special meeting held within a reasonable time thereafter, determine in good faith whether, in regard to the matter involved in the action or contemplated action, such person acted, failed to act, or refuses to act willfully or with gross negligence or with fraudulent or criminal intent.

If the Board of Directors determines in good faith that such person did not act, fail to act, or refuse to act willfully or with gross negligence or with fraudulent or criminal intent in regard to the matter involved in the action or contemplated action, indemnification shall be mandatory and shall be available with respect to liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933 and provided further that the corporation shall have the right to refuse indemnification in any instance in which the person to whom indemnification would otherwise have been applicable shall have unreasonably refused to permit the corporation, at its own expenses and through counsel of its own choosing, to defend him or her in the action.

14. Board of Directors. The number of directors of the corporation shall be fixed and may be altered from time to time as may be provided in the by-laws. In case of any increase in the number of directors, the additional directors may be elected by the directors or by the shareholders at an annual or special meeting, as shall be provided in the by-laws.

15. The corporation will not commence business until it has received for the issuance of its shares consideration of the value of a stated sum, which shall be at least one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).
