Dear Florida Secretary:

Enclosed find application to form a corporation in Florida for Correa Business Services Inc. I recently moved to Florida from Massachusetts. For the year 2013, I have conducted business in Florida from my home by mail. Therefore, according to my understanding of the laws of Florida, I was required to apply for the right to conduct business in Florida by a foreign corporation. So I applied for this status and am now approved to conduct business in Florida with a Massachusetts corporation.

Meanwhile, I decided that I should dissolve my Massachusetts corporation, which I am now in the process of doing and, instead, form a corporation in Florida. A phone call to your office instructed me to withdraw my registration as a foreign corporation doing business in Florida to free up the name Correa Business Services Inc. and then proceed to incorporate in Florida. I performed the withdrawal process on November 19, 2013 and I am enclosing the application and fee to complete the incorporation process. The reason that I am mailing this instead of applying on line is because your office advised me that, because the articles of organization did not fit in the space allowed on your website, I should complete the application and send by regular mail.

Regarding the Articles of Incorporation, they consist of the same wording as that of the Articles of the previous corporation as prepared by my attorney in Massachusetts except for the state name of Florida. My qualifications for the duties explained in the Articles are that I am licensed by the Internal Revenue Service to represent clients before them and I have taught Accounting and computer education in one high school and 3 colleges over the past 40 years. I earned a Bachelor degree in Accounting and a Master degree in education. I also hold a license to sell insurance in the states of Florida and Massachusetts.

Enclosed find check for $78.75. If there is anything further that I should do, please notify me.

Sincerely,

Walter R. Correa
