To Whom It May Concern:

In 2008 before I really knew anything about business, I registered RatedStars.com (P08000074840) and never did anything with it. Well yesterday I submitted a new registration with a company with the same name because I didn't want to pay the $1000+ fee for reinstating a company I never did anything with. When I realized the name was still up for grabs, I re-registered the same name, not realizing I could have just contacted this department to resolve this.

Can you please either let me keep the original company (P08000074840, RATEDSTARS.COM.) or approved me to register the new company with the same name, as suggested in the attached email. I own both companies and that the officer/director are the same.

I would like the original company, but this is the info for the new company registration I just did below:
