RE: New Articles of Incorporation using existing name Currey & Herrera Ins. Agency, Inc. that is presently inactive (see article 8). Effective date should be January 1, 2014

Attention Division of Corporations:

Please be advised that neither my client or my office received notification of the filing fee due on this corporation for 2013. However, I contacted the Division of Corporations and was told that my client would not have to wait a year to claim their corporate name, but because of it being the original owner of the name, can file immediately under article 8 and use the same name. I was also told, we would be required to pay a fee of $70.00, but to let you know that this corporation will have the same name and to make it effective, January 1, 2014 and that a new "P" number would be issued. I have included a print out from your name search, so that you can trace back to the last filing for this company, to quickly pull the information along with the filing documents.

I have enclosed a check in the amount of $70. Please process these documents and for all future correspondence, please use email address: matt.currey@brightway.com.

Thank you in advance for all your help and cooperation.

Regards,

MaryAnn King, CPA

We have received your document for CURREY & HERRERA INS AGENCY, INC. and your check(s) totaling $70.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an administratively dissolved/revoked entity. Names of administratively dissolved/revoked entities are not available for one year from the date of administrative dissolution/revocation unless the dissolved/revoked entity provides the Department of State with an affidavit or letter stating that they have no intention of reinstating, therefore, releasing the name for use to another entity.

If your business entity does not intend to transact business until January 1st of the upcoming calendar year, you may wish to revise your document to include an effective date of January 1st. If you do not list an effective date of January 1st, your business entity will become effective this calendar year and it will be required to file an annual report and pay the required annual report fee for the upcoming calendar year this coming January, which is merely weeks away. By listing an effective date of January 1st, the entity's existence will not begin until January 1st of the upcoming year and will, therefore, postpone the entity's requirement to file an annual report and pay the required annual report filing fee until the following calendar year.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6052.
