IDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party of any threatened, pending, or completion action, suit, or proceedings whether civil, criminal administrative or investigative (other than by acting by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason for the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation., partnership, joint venture trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including Attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlements actually or reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such actions, suit or proceedings, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which person shall have adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the Corporation.

Section 3. To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent has been successful in the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article XIII or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein , he or she shall be indemnified against the expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

Section 4. Any indemnification shall be made by the Corporation only upon a determination that indemnification of the Director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in said Section 1 or Section 2. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors who were parties to such action, suit or proceedings, or, (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even obtainable, a quorum of disinterested Directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in written opinion, or, by the stockholders.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Section 5. The Corporation shall to the fullest extent, permitted by the applicable from time to time in effect, indemnify any and all persons who it shall have power to indemnify under said law from and against any and all of the expenses, liabilities or other matters referred to in or covered by said law; and the indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive for any other rights which any person may be entitled to under any By-Laws agreement, vote of stockholders or action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall insure to the benefit of the heir, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 6. The Corporation may purchase and maintain on behalf of any person who is or was Director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provision of the General laws of the State of Florida.
